

Celebrate Christmas

Families have a choice between shopping for children at the Community Christmas Store or a Christmas Basket with food for the holiday meal.

With a tear in her eye, the woman shared that her son had never had clothing from Kohl's before. She was really excited for him to open his gifts Christmas morning. What a blessing the Community Christmas Store is for all of us. Every child should have the opportunity to celebrate Christmas, our community can share the joy of giving, and every parent should be able to relish in their children's excitement.
